

The Society of American Magicians • Parent Assembly, #1

108th Salute to Magic

The Oldest Continuing Magic Show in the U. S. A.

PRESS RELEASE

January-16 ,2017

For more information contact:
George Schindler, 718-336-0605, showbiz10@aol.com

Magicians Continue to Amaze at 108th Annual "Salute to Magic" Show, April 8 at Queens Theatre - One Night only.

The Society of American Magicians, Parent Assembly Number 1, will present the 108th Annual Salute to Magic, featuring award winning magic and juggling talents, April 8 at Queens Theatre.

The Salute to Magic is the longest-running annual magic show in the world and has featured performances by many of the greats of magic, including Harry Houdini, Dante, Cardini, Dai Vernon and many more. "The Salute to Magic" is an evening of unbeatable magic," said Nina Schindler, Vice President of the Parent Assembly and Producer of the event. "It is jam packed with mystery, audience participation, wonder, and illusion from some of today's world class magicians".

This year's Full Evening Show features Award-Winning Magicians, Including - Denny Haney (Hilarious manipulator and our emcee) Comedy Illusionists Scott and Puck (Penn & Teller Fool Us . and America's Got Talent) - Alexander Boyce (Elegant young gentleman of magic) and - Will Shaw (New York's favorite Juggler)

Plus: -Magician Rene Clement Honored as 2017 "Magician of the Year."

The show will be presented Saturday, April 8, 2017 at 8:00 p.m. at Queens Theatre (14 United Nations Avenue South, Flushing Meadows Corona Park, Queens). Tickets are just $50.00 available online at www.queentheatre.org/content/other-events , or by calling the theatre Box Office at 718-760-0064. Tickets may also be purchased in-person at the Queens Theatre . Office, Tuesday through Friday 12 p.m. to 6 p. m., and two hours before the show.

